CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.
2. The Purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the Purchase-money if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
3. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's Expense and Risk on the morning following each session of the Sale between 9 and 2 o'clock, and the remainder of the Purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold himself responsible if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.
4. The sale of any Painting is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. All are exposed for Public Exhibition one or more days, and are sold just as they are without recourse.
5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can, on any account, be removed during the Sale.
6. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private Sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this Sale, together with all charges attending the same. This Condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this Sale, without such re-sale, if he think fit.

A Summer Afternoon (Oil)

20 x 24—Dated 1869

Lots from No. 36 to No. 60 are water-colors, by Wm. T. Richards, and were painted to the order of or selected by Mr. Whitney.

36

Sachuset Point, Newport, R. I.

13½ x 8½—Dated 1875

This rocky point is three or four miles to the east of Newport. In stormy weather the great rollers from the Atlantic breaking on the ledges make a surf wilder than elsewhere on the neighboring shore.

37

Third Beach, Newport, R. I.

13 x 8½—Dated 1874

38

Off the Spar Buoy, Atlantic City, N. J.

13½ x 9—Dated 1873

A series of buoys marks the channel between the beach at Atlantic City and Brigantine Shoals. This is a favorite cruising-ground for pleasure boats.

39

Easton's Pond and First Beach, Newport, R. I.

13 x 8½—Dated 1874

40

Wharf at Inlet, Atlantic City, N. J.

13 1/2 x 8 1/4—Dated 1873

41

Kettle Bottom Rock, Narragansett Bay

13 1/2 x 8 1/4—Dated 1875

A solitary rock, not far from the shores of Conanicut Island, the haunt of sea-fowl.

42

Old Orchard, Newport, R. I.

13 x 8—Dated 1874

The old apple orchards in the neighborhood of Newport are very picturesque. The long buffeting of sea winds has made trees gnarled and rugged.

43

Thunder-Storm, Atlantic City, N. J.

13 1/2 x 8—Dated 1873

44

Boat-House Point, Newport, R. I.

13 1/2 x 8 1/4—Dated 1875

47

Tennyson's Lane, Farringford Park, Isle of Wight

13 1/4 x 9 1/4—Dated 1880

Farringford Park, Freshwater, Isle of Wight, is the summer home of the poet Tennyson. The mansion house is nowhere visible from the public ways. The farm buildings and the farm lands are very picturesque, and the farm lane which is called by the poet's name is a very characteristic bit of English rural scenery.

48

South-east Storm, Sachuset Point, Newport, R. I.

13 1/4 x 8 1/2—Dated 1875

49

Near Lily Pond, Newport, R. I.

13 1/4 x 8 1/2—Dated 1875

50

The Inlet, Atlantic City, N. J.

13½ x 8—Dated 1873

Abescon and Brigantine beaches are separated by an arm of the sea. It is a safe anchorage and a harbor of refuge. This inlet runs through the wide salt meadows which lie between the beaches and the main land, and joining other water ways makes the thoroughfare a devious inland channel reaching from Barnegat Bay to Cape May.

6 x 7—Dated 1871

56

The Village of Ammagansett, L. I.

13 1/4 x 7 1/4—Dated 1873

The village of Ammagansett, with its windmills and grass-grown streets, has a quaintness and charm which makes it unique among the sea-side villages of Long Island.

57

Gathering Water Lilies.

14 x 9—Dated 1877

A Sheltered Cove

14 x 9—Dated 1881

59

Gull Rock, Newport, R. I.

14 x 8 1/4—Dated 1876

Though "The Cliff," at Newport, has been civilized to its very edge, the sea breaks as of old at its base and its surges are as wild as ever on the outlying ledges.

Cedars on the Beach, New Jersey

13 $\frac{1}{2}$  x 8—Dated 1873

The sea, in its inroads on the beaches of New Jersey, has destroyed the woods of cedar and holly, which formerly grew to high-water mark in the vicinity of Atlantic City.

115

96-
Near Farringford Park, Freshwater, Isle of Wight

13 1/2 x 9 1/2—Dated 1880

The neighborhood of Tennyson's house is everywhere beautiful. Noble downs shut it from the sea, and all the charm of English pastoral landscape can be found in its valleys and by its streams.

Harvesting Sea-weed

14 x 9—Dated 1883

After every storm, great masses of sea-weed are left along the shores of New England. It is collected by the farmers as a valuable fertilizer. On the bright days succeeding a storm, picturesque ox teams with carts filled with the rich brown weed, may be found on every beach, or be seen slowly moving to the inland fields.

128

Mackerel Cove, Conanicut Island, R. I.

13 1/2 x 8 1/2—Dated 1875

The shores of this cove, or bay, are very varied, and perhaps nowhere else on the coast can so much wildness and beauty be found in so small a space.

Sand Hills, Atlantic City (Water-color)

36 x 22—Dated 1876

The sand-hills, built of blown sand from the beach, on many parts of the New Jersey coast, are covered by patches of grass, bushes, stunted trees, and wild vines; with ribbed sand, like the ripples of water, drifted among them. It seems "a waste land where no one comes or hath come since the making of the world."

BOUGHTON (GEO. H.)

The March of Miles Standish

48 x 24—Dated 1869

In Royal Academy Exhibition, 1869.

(Painted to order for S. P. Avery.)

(From the London Times, June 11, 1869.)

"Mr. Boughton, with other advantages of French study, has brought away this of painting subjects unstalily and unaffectedly, with a right and refined sense of pictorial effect. No. 223—'The March of Miles Standish'—shows the knot of Puritan immigrants cautiously marching up the unknown country at the heels of their Indian guide. The soft, stealthy, moccasin-shod tread of the red skin is well contrasted with the heavier, more resolute pace of the white man—

" 'Standish the stalwart it was—with eight of his valorous army,
Led by their guide, by Hobomok, friend of the white men,
Northward marching to quell the sudden revolt of the savage,
Giants they seemed in the mist, or the mighty men of King David.' "
